

WASHINGTON ASSOCIATION OF SHERIFFS AND POLICE CHIEFS
NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR VICTIM ASSISTANCE

HOLD THE DATE! REGISTER NOW!

NOVA, hosted by WASPC, will be in Washington during the month of March to provide free trainings focusing in two important areas related to cyber crime.

- 1. Victim Advocacy for Victims/Survivors of Cyber Crime – one day training for advocates who work with victims of identity theft and other cyber crimes as they relate to domestic violence, trafficking, and stalking.

March 26th – WASPC Office Building, 3060 Willamette, Dr NE, Lacey. Registration 8:30am
Training 9:00-4:30pm lunch provided

- 2. Community Awareness and Cyber Crime Prevention- four hour workshop to prepare individuals to provide a 20-30 minute presentation to community groups of all ages. A powerpoint, handouts, and other materials for your use will be distributed.

March 25th – CJTC, 19010 1st Ave So., Burien 8:30-noon

March 25th – 3000 Rockefeller Ave, Rm 6A04, Everett 1:30-5:00

March 27th – WASPC Office (address above) Lacey 9:00-1:00

March 28th – Vancouver – West Precinct, Vancouver Police Dept, 2800 NE Stapleton Rd,
Vancouver. 9:00-1:00 PM

NOTES: Snacks will be provided at the Prevention trainings. Lunch and snacks will be provided at the day-long advocate trainings. Mileage will be reimbursed.

REGISTRATION: Name, agency, email address to Dawn Larsen, WASPC, at dlarsen@waspc.org or call 360-486-2419 or fax 360-486-2381. At least 10 registrations needed at each site.